CCA Report-Secondary

The CCA was conducted in the school every Tuesday from the start of the session till October 2019. These activities were a blend of individual as well as group events.

To achieve the true essence of these, all the students of the school were divided into 4 houses namely Ashoka, Pratap, Shivaji and Tagore. Further the classes were divided in two groups – junior group which included classes 6 to 8 and senior group which included the classes 9 and 10.

To appoint the student council of the school, a panel was set up to select students from the senior group to take up the posts of captains and vice captains of the school and the 4 houses for different categories based on their skills, talent and potential.

The year started artistically with Inter house art competition as the first event that got the ball rolling followed by other individual events like book mark making, greeting card making, poster making and slogan writing, solo singing, English extempore, article writing, story writing, debate and elocution.

Over 300 students participated in these events. This grand scale participation strengthens our belief in the system of providing a platform to every child to showcase his or her skills and talents.

Certificates and cash vouchers were presented to 146 students.

We are indeed very proud of Aayushi Somkuwar of class 8A and Lakshmi C. of class 9-B who are the CCA toppers for this academic session and bagged the First Prize in all three events they participated in.

CCA Report-Primary

This year's Co-Curricular Activities began with segregating the students into four houses and then choosing the School captains, vice captains, house captains, vice captains through a thorough process of looking at student's past performances academically and in CCA.

Followed by the investiture ceremony, where in the students took oath to fulfill their duties sincerely with full dedication.

The CCA in the primary section saw a few changes this year. Instead of having just one CCA in charge, the duties were divided amongst 2 of us. Smt Swati Kadam was in charge of the activities for group I, that includes classes 1 & 2 and activities for group II were being handled by Smt Nidhi Raheja. Shri. Shanker Singh sir being the member of the committee.

Another change which was brought about was that instead of having a dance competition for group II, for the 1st time we held a drama competition.

Teachers from the pre-primary, primary and secondary sections of our school and guest judges from other schools were called to assess the children during the various competitions.

Out of nearly 450 students of the primary section, more than 30% students received prizes in various competitions today.

The children receive prizes in various positions with prize amount ranging from Rs. 100/- in a group competition to Rs. 500/- in the individual competitions.

To ensure maximum participation each child could win in a maximum of 3 competitions irrespective of the position or whether it was and individual or a group competition.

3 of our students have got 1st prizes in all competitions and have scored the maximum points.

Students are altogether receiving prizes worth Rs. 63,350/-
